

I oppose the weakening of the no call list to include business relationships.